WHAT WE PLAN TO DISCUSS

Four areas your team asked about

Resiliency

Can we keep pace as your volumes grow? Capacity, backup plans, and quality certifications.

Innovation

Flavor work inside your products — including oral-care chemistry and new directions worth exploring.

Operations

How we develop, produce, and release flavors from one Norco facility — with clear documentation.

Partnership

How we communicate, invest, and plan with you over the long term.

We can also cover:

- Lakewood site parity — keeping taste consistent as production expands
- Workshop tasting — Flavor Flight Challenge with Samples A-E; directional feedback only, not a launch decision
- Anything else on your list — procurement, growth, or technical topics
